FAMILY CAMP OUTS AT HENSON ROBINSON ZOO

[Springfield, Illinois] — Bring your tent and stay the night for an evening packed with fun and activities at the Henson Robinson Zoo's Family Camp Outs. The zoo will be offering camp outs on May 29th and July 17th. Each camp out will include a camping area, dinner, activities, night hike and breakfast the following morning.

The family camp outs will each have a theme which the activities will center around. The theme for the May 29th camp out will be dinosaurs and families will learn all about these ancient animals by visiting stations around the zoo. On July 17th the camp out will be a mystery during which families will use their sleuthing skills to solve the mystery of the zoo prankster.

Costs are $18 per adult and $13 per child for Springfield Park District residents and zoo members. Non-resident rates are $20.50 per adult and $15.50 per child. Space is limited and reservations are required. Call the zoo at (217)585-1821 for more information or to make a reservation.
